"Is It Time To Modify Your Child Support?" - Tuesday, September 18, 2018 and January 15, 2019 | 6-7:30 p.m.

August 1, 2018 a new law went into effect that changes how child support is calculated. Many parents may now have changes to their basic child support obligation. Come meet our family law attorneys to understand the changes and see examples of how the new law will affect basic support calculations in a variety of circumstances.

Divorce basics – "Are You Thinking About Getting Divorced" - Tuesday, October 9, 2018 | 6-7:30 p.m.

In many cases getting married is easier than getting divorced. Come meet with our family law attorneys to learn about the process, what to expect and what to have ready when you decide it is time to move forward with divorce.

"What About Spousal Maintenance" - Monday, November 5, 2018 | 6-7:30 p.m.

Spousal Maintenance is complicated and can be a very difficult part of the divorce process. Our family law attorneys will discuss the initial award of maintenance, modification of orders, what happens at retirement and when does it end. We will also share trends, tax law changes, and how to prepare your case.

"In The Best Interest – Custody and Parenting Time" - Tuesday, February 5, 2019 | 6-7:30 p.m.

Children are so important. Determining what is in their best interest can be difficult and emotional. Our family law attorneys will share the law and issues related to custody and parenting time, the trends and the factors the courts and other professionals consider when making recommendations and decisions.

Due to the popularity of these seminars your RSVP is required.
